

MKR Therapies, LLC.
203-556-7125
mkrtherapiesct@gmail.com

Webinar Liability Waiver

This document signifies that you, as the attendee, completely understand that the Break Space For Parents is a live informational webinar. It is not individual parent coaching or psychotherapy. If you would like to ask individual questions or receive personal support about issues regarding your parenting please contact MKR Therapies, LLC. at mkrtherapiestct@gmail.com.

This document also signifies that you, as the attendee, completely understand that the parenting advice and strategies provided by MKR Therapies, LLC during the webinars are suggestions for your use. You, as the attendee, understand completely that you are free to use the information provided during the webinars or not to use the information provided at the webinars. If you, as the attendee, choose to use some of the information received at the webinars that you completely understand that MKR Therapies is not liable for any negative impacts the usage of the information provided at the webinars may have caused you.

This document also signifies that you, as the attendee, completely understand that there will be time when yoga postures, mindfulness techniques, and meditation will be a part of these webinars. You also understand that participating in these activities may cause you harm in some way. You, as the attendee, completely understand that MKR Therapies is not liable for any negative impacts your participation in these such activities during the webinars may cause you.

This document also signifies that you, as the attendee, completely understand that the webinars will be held over zoom with other participants. Zoom works to provide privacy and security to its users but there are limitations. If you have any questions about the security of participating in zoom meetings please visit <https://explore.zoom.us/trust>. Also you, as the attendee, completely understand that the webinar participants are not bound by any confidentiality agreement with MKR Therapies, LLC or other participants. The webinar will also be recorded and sent to participants. You, as the attendee completely understand that if you choose to participate and ask questions during the webinar your face and questions will be on the recording. MKR Therapies, LLC. is not liable for any negative impact on you caused by your participation in the zoom webinar.

By electronically signing this document you, as the attendee, have read and completely understand the above information and understand that MKR Therapies, LLC. is not liable for any negative impacts that may occur from participating in the free webinars provided by MKR Therapies.

Name of Participant: _____

Signature of Participant: _____

Date: _____